The musical score is written for a vocal ensemble (Ensemble Men) and piano/conductor. It is in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major (two flats), and marked 'Vivace' with a tempo of 120 beats per minute. The score is divided into three systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The first system (measures 1-4) shows the vocal line with a whole rest, indicating the vocalists enter on the second measure. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand. The second system (measures 5-8) contains the first line of lyrics: 'You can't be wish - y - wash - y with Vash - ti — not she —'. The third system (measures 9-12) contains the second line of lyrics: 'If you should hem and haw — Then you're through Tell - ing you. —'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line throughout.
